The following paper adopted at a meeting held yesterday afternoon ex-plains itself, and bears on a subject in fects so vitally the legal interests of the city.

The league cannot by canvass or solicitation advocate the claims of any individual to office, within the control of the Council, yet in view of the unusual feeling and undue excitement engendered in the late presidential campaign, it is clearly within the province of the league to commend calm and judicious action in all matters affecting the highest good of the city, and in this behalf to invoke the serious consideration of all Democrats, as well as other citizens, and members of the Councils.

In view, therefore, of the long identification of the present City Attorney with the legal business of the city, his full knowledge of the many franchises granted and pending, as well as the many cases of great moment to the city now within a few days of trial, we deem it most inexpedient and highly detrimental to the pressing needs of the city now within a few days of trial, we deem it most inexpedient and highly detrifinental to the pressing needs of the city and its best advantage to create at this period a vacancy in the office of the City Attorney.

The present incumbent is known of all citizens, and needs no endorsement from any source. We seek to view his individuality in the light of an impersonal equation, and simply record our judgment of his official services as most capable, exact, isborious, and of inestimable value to the vital interests of the city at this moment.

the First-Police Station, against whom charges were recently preferred by Captain Thomas. The sub-committee which investigated the matter reported that the charges were sustained, but as this was the first offence they made no recommendation. The discussion was quite animated, but finally Mr. Whalen moved that the Janitor be reinstated, as this was the first time that there had been complaint, and the motion prevailed. Those who voted for it were Messrs, Mountcastle, Whalen, and Starke, while those opposing it were Messrs. Blanks and Lawder.

The contract for furnishing license, tins was awarded to Mountcastle & Co.

Lee Camp's Weckly Meeting.

R. E. Lee Camp he d its regular meeting last right, with Commander James T. Gray presiding. A letter was received from Captain H. B. Littlepage, of the office of Naval War Records, asking, as the records of the Confederate States navy were in great part scattered, that all camps. Confederate organizations, or individuals, who have in their possession letters, reports, or official documents of any kind relating to the operations of the Confederate States, navy will kindly send them to his address. The expense of transportation will be borne by the department, at Washington, D. C. The letter was referred to the following committee: Comrades Maxwell T. Clarke, v. Newton, and J. W. Pegram.

On motion of D. Smith Redford, a committee, consisting of Comrades Redford, J. Henry Kracke, and Thomas P. Pollard, Ladies' Black was appointed to find out who are the ranking officers in the artillery, infantry, cavairy, and naval services of the Confederate States now resident in this city.
